

Behold, I am doing a new thing; now it springs forth, do you not perceive it?"

Isaiah 43:19a

We stand on the threshold of a new year. For many, the New Year is viewed as a new beginning, a fresh start, as an opportunity, in some cases, to start over. It might be to overcome a habit, or do a better job at something they see as important. It may be parenting, being a better spouse, losing weight (which, by the way, is the number one resolution according to most polls taken). It may be developing different priorities, using our time better, or a whole host of other things that people would like to change.

We often hear a lot about New Year's resolutions, resolutions which are usually broken in a matter of weeks, if not days. Many people are pessimistic about the whole process of making resolutions, and rightly so, because so many good intentions are followed by a history of past failures.

The New Year is also a time to reflect upon what the past year has brought and what the new year could bring. It is a time to stop and reflect, to take stock of our priorities, values, pursuits, and goals. We ask questions like, "Who am I? What am I doing with my life? What should I be doing as a follower of Jesus with my life and the resources that God has given me?" According to scriptures, all of life is about stewardship – the stewardship of our time, talents, and treasures.

Hidden away in the Book of Order of the Presbyterian Church (USA) is section G-1.0304, entitled, "The Ministry of Members." It offers up for us a list of ways that members of the church might or should be involved in living a life of discipleship. It begins with these words: "Membership in the Church of Jesus Christ is a joy and a privilege. It is also a commitment to participate in Christ's mission. A faithful member bears witness to God's love and grace and promises to be involved responsibly in the ministry of Christ's Church. (Then, here's the list.)

Such involvement includes:

- proclaiming the good news in word and deed,
- taking part in the common life and worship of a congregation,
- lifting one another up in prayer, mutual concern, and active support,
- studying Scripture and the issues of Christian faith and life,

- supporting the ministry of the church through the giving of money, time, and talents,
- demonstrating a new quality of life within and through the church,
- responding to God's activity in the world through service to others,
- living responsibly in the personal, family, vocational, political, cultural, and social relationships of life,
- working in the world for peace, justice, freedom, and human fulfillment,
- caring for God's creation,
- participating in the governing responsibilities of the church, and
- reviewing and evaluating regularly the integrity of one's membership, and considering ways in which one's participation in the worship and service of the church may be increased and made more meaningful."

This last point sounds like a New Year's activity to me. This list is a tall order, but it stands as an invitation to each of us so that we might understand our participation in the life and ministry of Rye Presbyterian Church as both "a joy and a privilege." May it be so for each of us, and for all of us. Happy New Year!

Faithfully yours,

Cantata Sunday: Approximately 350 people attended this year's Cantata Sunday as Jason Charneski led the RPC chancel choir, soloists, and an orchestra in a performance of J. S. Bach's "Cantata 140." Following was a festive coffee hour coordinated by the Deacons.

Stewardship 2019, Stephen Ministry, Greening of the Kirk Elves

BEST-LAID PLANS

Milestones, like the new calendar year, inspire resolutions, to-do lists, bucket lists, and wishes for a “happy new year.” But every so often, our year doesn’t work out the way we hoped or planned. When something unforeseen happens and we realize that we are not in control, we can feel lost, overwhelmed, angry, and even afraid.

Stephen Ministers are trained to listen and support when our best-laid plans go sideways. They are aware that the best route to healing is to offer an objective compassionate ear as we sort out a new “normal.” Rye Presbyterian’s new class of Stephen Ministers is being commissioned on January 20.

If you or someone you know has felt the ripple effect of challenging circumstances as they move into a new year, contact the Rye Presbyterian Church clergy or Tav Rogers (914-400-3568; tav@rogers.fm) to learn more about how Stephen Ministry can help.

Thank you to our

An evening with Dan Love looking at archived pictures of the life of our church. We'll tour through the history of the building in various stages of its development, and look through pictures of the people of RPC's history. with Graduation on June 2.
Dinner from 7:00-8:00 p.m.
All are welcome for dinner in the Westminster Room

The Coming Home program is an extension of our long-standing Prison Ministry. In collaboration with The Beck Institute on Religion and Poverty at Fordham University, Coming Home seeks to empower those who are returning to the community from incarceration. This 18-week program pairs RPC congregants with the formerly incarcerated to help them transition back to their communities. Coming Home provides life skills, goal-setting, and sharing personal stories in a safe and supportive community.

Our Coming Home ministry offers various volunteer opportunities:

- Mentors—congregants who are paired with participants, supporting, encouraging, and journeying with them through the program. To volunteer to serve as a mentor, please contact Pastor Miller at jmiller@ryepc.com.
- Guest Speakers—presenters are needed to teach networking, job-searching, and other skills.
- Cooks and Hosts—each evening begins with a meal prepared and served by RPC congregants who share table fellowship before the program begins. To volunteer to help with a meal, please contact our Meals Coordinator, Linda Otness, at: otness.linda@gmail.com.

For more information, contact Mr. Kevin Bunch, Program Coordinator, at savedmedic2001@yahoo.com or at (914) 473-2221; or Pastor John Miller at jmiller@ryepc.com or at 914-967-0842.

RSVP: susangim@gmail.com

Come meet Ann Magalhaes as she leads a discussion on Positive Parenting. The first hour will focus on a central module of her practice: Descriptive Praise. We hope it will be useful for all types of caretakers (moms, dads, and grandparents) and for children of all ages.

We will follow the information session with a mixer—a great opportunity to meet and mingle with other parents in the RPC community as well.

Ann Magalhaes: Ann has been leading parenting courses and workshops since 2008. She trained and worked with the Parent Practice in London until 2013 when she moved to Rye. She has since taught the Positive Parenting Course and workshops in NYC, and in Westchester and Fairfield Counties. She holds a BA in Japanese Language & Literature and Spanish Studies from the University of Toronto and an MBA from Canada's Richard Ivey School of Business. She is currently serving on the Heard in Rye committee and is an Executive Board member with Five Steps to Five, where she also volunteers her time teaching parenting in Port Chester.

Christian Education Newsletter

It has been found that parents are the primary influence on their children's journey of faith. That means our children first begin to understand the love of God and the Christian faith through the love and care of their parents and through the faith practices observed at home.

We seek to help parents with faith development at home by providing a variety of ways for families to engage scripture, ask questions, and grow closer to God together. It is our hope that this weekly newsletter helps families experience God at work in their everyday lives. The newsletter will be sent out each Monday.

If interested in receiving this newsletter, please contact Jean-Paul Marshall (jmarshall@ryepc.com).

Rye Presbyterian Nursery School

Greetings to the RPC Community from Kristin Bassett Kumar

Rye Presbyterian Nursery School held its annual Holiday Caroling Party on Saturday, December 1. The event is funded by sponsorships and all proceeds go towards tuition scholarships for the upcoming school year. Parents and staff volunteered to organize and run the event. The festivities for the party included a sing-along with children's musicians from Songs for Seeds, an outdoor petting zoo, and a horse-drawn hay ride.

For the art project, the children created "self-portrait ornaments" on natural wood circles.

Families enjoyed buying delicious homemade treats from the bake sale and getting their photo taken with Santa.

Beautiful themed baskets for children were given away in our annual raffle. During the week before the party, the students in each classroom made an ornament to adorn the Christmas tree in the church Assembly Room.
